Make a friend. Be a friend. Bring a friend to Christ.

March 17, 2011

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

May the peace of Our Lord Jesus Christ find you happy and in good health. I would like to thank you for your generous response to my 2010 St. Patrick's Day letter which raised $3,620 which helped support Seattle Cursillo activities throughout the year.

The graces of the Seattle Archdiocese Cursillo Movement continue. Last December Archbishop J. Peter Sartain, who is a strong supporter of Cursillo, became our new archbishop. In addition, our movement is grateful for the strong and active support of Auxiliary Bishop Eusebio Elizondo, Fr. Jim Dalton, and Deacon Anselmo Pardo.

I am pleased to announce that our movement will celebrate a Super Ultreya with Archbishop J. Peter Sartain and Auxiliary Bishop Eusebio Elizondo on Saturday, April 2nd, 2011, 12-3 pm, at St. Madeleine Sophie Parish, Bellevue, WA; beginning with a Mass at noon. The entire Cursillo community is invited to participate in this unique event to welcome our archbishop. I hope you can join us and help us spread the word.

Our movement is in need of a new generation of Cursillo leaders to join our school of leaders (SOL) to help advance Cursillo in our archdiocese. I ask you to prayerfully consider sharing your time and talents for 2-3 years at our SOL to help us strengthen and re-energize our movement. Please contact me if you are interested.

I would like to ask you once again for a generous, tax-deductible donation to the Seattle Archdiocese Cursillo movement. As a reference, the current break-even cost of a participant candidate or team member at a weekend is $110.00, but any donation is welcome. Please send your donation to the address below.

I thank you in advance for sharing your gifts and talents and pray to Our Lord Jesus Christ to continue to bless you and your family.

Your brother in Christ, De Colores!
